Join us for

Building a Fourth Wave of HIV/AIDS Activism: An Activist-Scholar Panel Discussion

Presented by

The Center for Nonprofit Strategy and Management at Baruch College School of Public Affairs, and The HIV Center for Clinical and Behavioral Studies at Columbia University.

AIDS activism has been back in the news, and activists have been back in the streets. After three major waves of AIDS-intense activism, we may be witnessing a fourth wave. Join us to discuss:

- What can be done to build this fourth wave?
- What might the experience of the first three waves suggest about its direction and impact?
